

The Citiblog

Flower Power Taxies Hit The Road!

September 18, 2007, 5:40.09 pm ET

It's flower power! Thousands of city taxis are decked out in pschedelic flowers. The project, called "Garden in Transit" is the brainchild of brothers, Ed and Bernie Massey, who are the founders of Portraits of Hope. All of the decals on the cabs were hand-painted by children, some with disabilities, to help children with disabilities and other serious illnesses. You can sponsor a taxi for $500.

Photos: Cititour.com

