

Redlands Daily Facts

REDLANDS, CALIFORNIA — WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1999

Portraits of hope

Volunteers and patients at Loma Linda University Medical Center add their touch to "Project 9865," a 165-foot-tall monument planned for Southern California.

Thousands of hospitalized children and their families across the country are participating in creating the monument, taller than the Statue of Liberty, which will serve as the Century City/Beverly Hills gateway.

LEE CALKINS/Redlands Daily Facts