PROJECT 9865 CANVASSES HOPE WITH PAINT— Elaine Winters, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center's Board of Governors President, with husband, Ben, and grandchildren, Lauren and Greg, help kick off Project 9865 during Cedars-Sinai's Family Painting Day, May 3rd. Two hundred guests of all ages assembled to begin painting the giant panels that will cover the 11,000 square foot oil derrick at 9865 Olympic Boulevard. Project 9865 is an extraordinary happening that reaches out and involves thousands of critically ill children around California. For information, contact (310)
